RE: Program sponsored by above club in observance of National Coin Week.

On April 22 and 23, 1983, the BATAVIA-GENESEE COUNTRY COIN AND STAMP CLUB staged a coin show at the local Mall facility of Batavia.

Using up an entire concourse with eleven (11) tables, the club displayed the following:

- 1). Table with over $10,000 dollars of gold and silver coins and ingots.
- 2). Table with over $5,000 dollars of U.S. Token and Type coins.
- 3). Table with over $3,000 dollars of U.S. and Canadian coins.
- 4). Table with over $2,000 dollars of World coins and Tokens.
- 5). Table with over $1,500 dollars of Love Tokens and Commemoratives.
- 6). Table with 10,000 wheat cents and a Slide show presentation of rare gold coins of the US aquired from the ANA through one of our members for this occassion.
- 7). Membership and information table, of which we signed up 20 new members through-out this two day event.
- 8). Table displaying both Stamps and Covers, since we are a Coin and Stamp Club.
- 9 & 10) Tables of various items for sale to the public with 20% of profits going to the club.
- 11). A Free givaway table, titled BGCC&S Club celebrates National Coin week., of which we gave away past issues of numismatic tabloids, National Coin week buttons supplied by the ANA.

We had a 25 cent raffle giving to the winner a 6 piece Bi-centennial mint set.

All tables were 8 foot in lenght with hand made skirts, depicting the display of each table.

Enclosed is some of the advertising we had for this event, sorry no pictures can be sent as these were taken by a club member in color and used for our scrap book.

We now boast well over a 100 member club and most is due to the fact that we have put on four public displays in the 82-83 calendar year.

Along with our own public auctions like the upcoming one on May 15 at the local YMCA, we also hold annual picnic and Xmas party for our members.

Thanking you in advance , for taking the time to read our report,
Sincerely;

Fred H. Estes Jr.
Secretary/ Batavia-Genesee
Country Coin and Stamp Club.
